MAYOR TO LAUNCH 'WALL OF SHAME' FOR OWNERS OF DERELICT PROPERTIES

On Monday, August 2, 2010, Reading Mayor Thomas M. McMahon will announce an Internet-based 'Wall of Shame' featuring the owners of derelict and blighted properties in the City of Reading. The brief announcement will be held in front of 328 Pear Street at Noon. The event coincides with the start of demolition of that property, which has been subject to action over the last several months by the Blighted Property Review Committee.

The 'Wall of Shame' will be accessible on the City of Reading's Internet site beginning Monday, August 2.

A Media Release highlighting the Mayor's announcement will be issued the morning of Monday, August 2.
